

DISCIPLE-MAKING MOVEMENTS

Resources for Churches

Building a Discipling Culture

Aims to place the mission of God in the hands of ordinary people, helping them to rediscover how to be a disciple who knows how to multiply. Through a two-year journey, BDC coaches a pastor with their core team to shape culture and practice in their own context.

Praxeis

Praxeis is an ever-growing movement of followers of Jesus, making disciples that multiply in all the world. They have workers around Australia and the world who are mobilising prayer, identifying people of peace, fostering groups of new believers, helping people become disciples through Bible Discovery, coaching people to share what God is doing with family and friends, and creating resources and learning opportunities for disciple-makers. Jill Birt is available to talk more.

Books We Recommend

Miraculous Movements by Jerry Trousdale.

Recounting the amazing change taking place within Muslim communities where the truth of Jesus Christ is turning lives around, this book outlines key principles that help all Christians reach out in love to share the gospel in their own community.

Building a Discipling Culture by Mike Breen.

Dallas Willard suggested that “Every church needs to be able to answer two questions. One, do we have a plan for making disciples? Two, does our plan work?” This book provides a proven roadmap for making disciples and is the key handbook for the 3DM movement.

Church Planting Movements by David Garrison.

Explores the five parts of every church planting movement: entry, gospel, discipleship, church planting and leadership development. This is a book of best practices from across the globe.
